Appropriations for FY2003: Legislative Branch

Updated January 27, 2003

Government and Finance Division

Appropriations are one part of a complex federal budget process that includes budget resolutions, appropriations (regular, supplemental, and continuing) bills, rescissions, and budget reconciliation bills. The process begins with the President's budget request and is bounded by the rules of the House and Senate, the Congressional Budget and Impoundment Control Act of 1974 (as amended), the Budget Enforcement Act of 1990, and current program authorizations.

This report is a guide to one of the 13 regular appropriations bills that Congress considers each year. It is designed to supplement the information provided by the House and Senate Appropriations Subcommittees on Legislative Branch Appropriations. It summarizes the current legislative status of the bill, its scope, major issues, funding levels, and related legislative activity. The report lists the key CRS staff relevant to the issues covered and related CRS products.

This report is updated as soon as possible after major legislative developments, especially following legislative action in the committees and on the floor of the House and Senate.

Summary

Final action on the FY2003 legislative branch bill is still pending, as it has since the beginning of the fiscal year, or October 1, 2002. On January 23, 2003, the Senate passed a revised version of the bill that was introduced as an amendment to H.J.Res. 2 (the FY2003 omnibus appropriation resolution) by Senator Ted Stevens on January 12, 2003. The language revises the language of an earlier bill passed by the Senate in July 2002, and reflects reductions in compliance with an agreement between some members of the Senate Appropriations Committee and the White House.

In lieu of a FY2003 legislative funding bill, Congress has passed six continuing resolutions that together have provided temporary funding at basically the FY2002 level from October 1, 2002, through January 31, 2003.

The House passed its version of the FY2003 legislative branch funding bill on July 18, 2002, in H.R. 5121. The bill contained $2.67 billion (excluding Senate items) for legislative branch activities, an increase of $128.2 million (5.0%) over the FY2002 appropriation of $2.54 billion (excluding Senate items and emergency response and supplemental funds).

The Senate passed its version of H.R. 5121, amended to contain the language of S. 2720, on July 25. It contained $2.42 billion (excluding House items), an increase of $143.1 million (6.3%) over the FY2002 level of $2.28 billion (excluding House items). The current revised Senate version in H.J.Res. 2 contains $2.34 billion (excluding House items), a reduction of 3.3% from the original FY2003 Senate bill, and an increase of 2.6% over the FY2002 appropriation.

Among the elements that Congress considered during discussions on the FY2003 bill are

- funding increase for the activities of the Capitol Police;
- security enhancements within and around the Capitol complex;
- recruitment and retention of Capitol Police personnel;
- salary disbursing authority for Capitol Police officers;
- Library of Congress Police merger with Capitol Police; and
- construction of a new Capitol Police command center.

This report will be updated to reflect congressional action.

Most Recent Developments

With Senate passage of H.J.Res. 2, FY2003 omnibus appropriation resolution, on January 23, 2003, the FY2003 legislative branch appropriation heads for conference. Senate language contains $2.34 billion for the legislative branch (excluding House items), an increase of 2.6% over FY2002.<sup>1</sup>

Currently, legislative branch operations are funded at the “rate of operations not to exceed the current rate” through January 31, 2003.<sup>2</sup>

The “rate of operations not to exceed the current rate” is defined as total funds available for obligation during the prior fiscal year, in this case FY2002. The availability of funds for obligation is based upon a calculation made by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB),<sup>3</sup> which requires the legislative branch, as well as all other federal entities, to allot funds based on the percentage of the year covered by the continuing resolution. Funds available for obligation include FY2002 regular annual and supplemental appropriations, less any rescissions, but exclude unobligated balances at the end of FY2002.

Introduction to the Legislative Branch Appropriations Bill

Effective in FY1978, the legislative branch appropriations bill was divided into two titles. Title I, Congressional Operations, contains budget authorities for activities directly serving Congress. Included in this title are the budgets of the House, the Senate, Joint Items (joint House and Senate activities), the Office of Compliance, the Congressional Budget Office (CBO), the Architect of the Capitol (AOC) (except the Library of Congress (LOC) buildings and grounds), the Congressional Research Service (CRS) within the Library of Congress, and congressional printing and binding activities of the Government Printing Office (GPO).

Title II, Related Agencies, contains budgets for activities not directly supporting Congress. Included in this title are the budgets of the Botanic Garden, the Library of Congress (except the Congressional Research Service), the Library buildings and grounds maintained by the Architect of the Capitol, the Government Printing Office (except congressional printing and binding costs), and the General Accounting Office (GAO). Periodically since FY1978, the legislative bill has contained additional titles for such purposes as capital improvements and special one-time functions.

As Figure 1 illustrates, in FY2002, Title I budget authority was 69.9% of the total appropriation of $3.25 billion, including regular annual funds in P.L. 107-68, emergency response funds pursuant to P.L. 107-117, and FY2003 supplemental appropriation in P.L. 107-206. Title II budget authority was 30.1% of the total appropriation. In addition, there was legislative budget authority that was not included in the annual legislative branch appropriations act. It included permanent budget authority for both federal funds and trust funds, and other budget authority.<sup>4</sup>

Note: Includes regular annual appropriations in P.L. 107-68; emergency response funds pursuant to P.L. 107-117; and FY2002 supplemental appropriation in P.L. 107-206.

Permanent federal funds are available as the result of previously enacted legislation and do not require annual action.<sup>5</sup>

<sup>4</sup> Other budget authorities are those of some non-legislative entities within the legislative branch budget as presented in the U.S. Budget that are actually funded in other appropriations bills.

Permanent trust funds are monies held in accounts credited with collections from specific sources earmarked by law for a defined purpose. Trust funds do not appear in the annual legislative bill since they are not budget authority. They are included in the U.S. Budget either as budget receipts or offsetting collections.<sup>6</sup>

The Budget also contains non-legislative entities within the legislative branch budget. They are funded in other appropriation bills, but are placed in the legislative section by the Office of Management and Budget for bookkeeping purposes.<sup>7</sup> foreign currencies ($7 million); and Library of Congress payments to copyright owners ($226 million). Source is the FY2003 U.S. Budget (with figures rounded to the nearest million).

<sup>6</sup> FY2003 estimated permanent trust fund authority is $38 million, comprised of Library of Congress gift and trust fund accounts ($22 million); U.S. Capitol Preservation Commission trust funds ($2 million); Architect of the Capitol, U.S. Botanic Garden, gifts and donations ($2 million); John C. Stennis Center for Public Service Training and Development trust funds ($2 million), and the Russian Leadership Development trust funds ($12 million). After deducting $2 million in offsetting receipts from the public, the total trust funds are $38 million. Source is the FY2003 U.S. Budget (which contains figures rounded to the nearest million).

<sup>7</sup> The FY2003 U.S. Budget contains $54 million in federal funds for non-legislative entities, with one exception, under two headings: (1) "U.S. Tax Court" ($38 million), and (2) "other legislative branch agencies - legislative branch boards and commissions" ($16 million), which includes the U.S. Commission on International Religious Freedom ($3 million); a subcategory titled "other legislative branch boards and commissions" ($3 million); and payment to the Russian Leadership Development Center trust fund ($10 million). The one exception is the payment to the Russian Leadership Development Center, which was contained in the FY2002 Legislative Branch Appropriations Act (P.L. 107-68).

For a more accurate picture of the legislative branch budget, as contained in the annual legislative branch appropriations bill, the total FY2003 legislative branch appropriation figure in the FY2003 U.S. Budget must be adjusted. This is accomplished by subtracting non-legislative funds and permanent federal and trust funds. Non-legislative funds are those for entities that are funded in other appropriations bills, but for bookkeeping purposes are counted as legislative branch funds by the Office of Management and Budget. The FY2003 U.S. Budget contains an FY2003 total legislative budget authority request of $3.9 billion. After subtracting non-legislative entities ($54 million), permanent federal funds ($338 million), and permanent trust funds ($38 million), the total is $3.48 billion (rounded).

- a. These figures represent current dollars, exclude permanent budget authorities, and contain supplementals and rescissions. Permanent budget authorities are not included in the annual legislative branch appropriations bill but, rather, are automatically funded annually.
- b. Includes budget authority contained in the FY1999 regular annual Legislative Branch Appropriations Act (P.L. 105-275), the FY1999 emergency supplemental appropriation (P.L. 105-277), and the FY1999 supplemental appropriation (P.L. 106-31).
- c. Includes budget authority contained in the FY2000 regular annual Legislative Branch Appropriations Act (P.L. 106-57); a supplemental and a 0.38% rescission in P.L. 106-113; and supplementals in P.L. 106-246 and P.L. 106-554.
- d. This figure contains: (1) FY2001 regular annual appropriations contained in H.R. 5657, legislative branch appropriations bill; (2) FY2001 supplemental appropriations of $118 million and a 0.22% across-the-board rescission contained in H.R. 5666, miscellaneous appropriations bill; and (3) FY2001 supplemental appropriations of $79.5 million contained in H.R. 2216 (P.L. 107-20). H.R. 5657 and H.R. 5666 were incorporated by reference in P.L. 106-554, FY2001 Consolidated Appropriations Act. The first FY2001 legislative branch appropriations bill, H.R. 4516, was vetoed Oct. 30, 2000. The second legislative branch appropriations bill, H.R. 5657, was introduced Dec. 14 and incorporated in P.L. 106-554. This figure does not reflect any terrorism supplementals funds released pursuant to P.L. 107-38.
- e. This figure contains appropriations in the regular annual FY2002 Legislative Branch Appropriations Act (P.L. 107-68; 115 Stat. 560; Nov. 15, 2001); transfers to the legislative branch emergency response fund pursuant to P.L. 107-117; and FY2002 supplemental appropriations in P.L. 107-206.

a. Since a legislative funding bill was not enacted by October 1, 2002, the beginning of FY2003, Congress extended funding generally at the FY2002 level from October 1, 2002, through January 31, 2003. A conference report was not filed on the FY2003 bill. The Senate amended H.J.Res. 2, the FY2003 continuing appropriations resolution, to contain the Senate version of the FY2003 legislative branch appropriation. The resolution, referred to as the FY2003 omnibus appropriations resolution, also contains FY2003 appropriations for agencies included in 10 other appropriations bills not enacted.

Implications for Legislative Branch Operations of Continuing Appropriations Funding

The legislative branch has operated under continuing resolutions since October 1, 2002.<sup>8</sup> In general the resolutions continued operations at the enacted FY2002 level, including supplemental appropriations.<sup>9</sup> Limiting the funding level to the FY2002 rate may adversely affect the legislative branch by delaying authorization and funding for new Capitol Police positions;<sup>10</sup> improvements in police training programs; establishment of new police recruitment and retention programs; availability of hazardous duty pay to the police; additional compensation for speciality assignments and proficiencies; authorization and funding for a full 9.1% pay increase for the Capitol Police in January 2003; and establishment of an alternative computing facility for the House, Senate, and other legislative branch activities. Also, the legislative branch will have to absorb the costs associated with implementation of the 3.1% pay increase that is scheduled for January 2003, and possibly an additional 1.0% increase that is contained in the Senate version of H.J.Res. 2, the FY2003 omnibus appropriation resolution.

<sup>10</sup> The increase in the number of police positions is subject to compromise between the Senate recommendation of 269 additional FTEs and the House recommendation of 318 additional FTEs

Action on the FY2003 Legislative Branch Appropriations Bill

Passage of House Version, H.R. 5121. The House version of the FY2003 bill, H.R. 5121, contains $2.67 billion (excluding Senate items), an increase of $128.2 million (5.0%) over FY2002's appropriation of $2.54 billion (excluding Senate items).

Among issues raised during House floor consideration was language in an amendment offered by Representative James Moran to reduce the appropriation for the Joint Committee on Taxation by $590,000 until the Committee released a report on tax evasion by expatriates. The House rejected the amendment, 206-213.

Also, during consideration, a point of order was raised and sustained by the chair against language that would have consolidated the Capitol Police payrolls, replacing the current method by which some personnel are paid from the House payroll and others from the Senate payroll.

Among provisions of H.R. 5121, as passed by the House, are those to

- increase funds for the Capitol Police by $99.0 million (63.0%), from $157.2 million to $256.2 million;
- increase the pay of Capitol Police by 9.1%, including a 4.1% annual adjustment, and an additional 5% pay raise;
- increase Capitol Police personnel positions by 318, to 1,477;
- make the Capitol Police chief an ex-officio member of the Capitol Police Board. Currently, the Board is comprised of the House and Senate Sergeants at Arms and the Architect of the Capitol;
- provide an annual pay adjustment of 4.1% to House employees;
- fund the House at $960.4 million; Capitol Police at $256.2 million; Congressional Research Service at $86.2 million; Congressional Budget Office at $32.4 million; Library of Congress at $422.2 million; General Accounting Office at $453.5 million; and the Government Printing Office at $119.8 million; and
- fund the activities of the Architect of the Capitol at $303.1 million.

Limitation on Transfer of Appropriations. The House bill, as reported by the House Appropriations Committee, and passed by the House, contains a new provision to limit the transfer of appropriations in anticipation of the enactment of the proposed Department of Homeland Security. Although the impact of the provision is not entirely clear, it appears to have been included due to concerns about potential transfers of appropriations without additional approved in an appropriations act. Similar language is included in FY2003 House appropriations bills for other departments and agencies.

A transfer, a shifting of funds between appropriations, is not allowed without statutory authority (31 U.S.C. §1532). Section 308 of H.R. 5121 prohibits the transferring of any funds appropriated in the Act to any department, agency, or instrumentality of the United States government, except pursuant to a transfer made by, or transfer authority provided in, the Act or any other appropriation act. This provision appears prospectively to prohibit any transfer of funds pursuant to authority made by, or transfer authority provided in, any act other than an appropriation act such as an authorization act.

This prohibition also may have the effect of denying transfer of funds made available in the Legislative Branch Appropriations Act, FY2003, pursuant to authority currently granted by the Economy Act because it is not an appropriation act. Codified at Sections 1535 and 1536 of Title 31 of the United States Code, the Economy Act now allows an agency to transfer funds to another agency to acquire goods or services if an agency filling an order is able to provide or get by contract those goods or services and if they cannot be provided by contract as conveniently or as cheaply by a commercial enterprise. This language does not appear in the Senate version of H.R. 5121.

Passage of Senate Version, H.R. 5121, Amended to Contain the Language of S. 2720. On July 25, the Senate passed H.R. 5121, amended to contain the provisions of S. 2720 (S.Rept. 107-209). The bill contains $2.42 billion (excluding House items), an increase of $163.8 million (7.3%) over the FY2002 level of $2.253 billion (excluding House items). Among its provisions are those to

- increase funds for the Capitol Police by $52.6 million (33.5%), from $157.2 million to $209.8 million;
- increase the pay of Capitol Police by 9.1%, including a 4.1% annual adjustment, and an additional 5% pay raise;
- increase Capitol Police personnel by 269 FTEs, to a total of 1,839 FTEs;
- merge the Library of Congress police with the Capitol police over 3 years;
- create the position of Deputy Architect of the Capitol as the chief operating officer for the Capitol complex;
- make up to $50 million available for an alternative computing facility for the House, Senate and other legislative branch entities, subject to a study by the Architect of the Capitol and approval by the Senate and House Appropriations Committees;
- direct the General Accounting Office to review printing and dissemination of Federal government information, particularly with respect to congressional printing and binding services of the Government Printing Office, the Federal Depository Library Program, and contracting of printing by the executive branch;

- fund the Senate at $672.6 million (with a $31.2 million increase primarily to fund a new security system, enhanced mail handling, and a new Office of Emergency Preparedness); Congressional Research Service at $87.0 million; Congressional Budget Office at $32.4 million; Library of Congress (excluding CRS) at $410.0 million; General Accounting Office $454.5 million; and the Government Printing Office at $122.5 million; and
- fund the Architect of the Capitol at $388.0 million (including renovations of the Capitol Power Plant).

Submission of FY2003 Budget Request. On February 4, 2002, the President submitted his FY2003 U.S. Budget, which contained a request prepared by legislative branch entities of $3.48 billion for activities funded in the annual legislative branch appropriations bill. Subsequently, the FY2003 request was revised by the legislative branch to $3.41 billion, a 5.7% increase over the FY2002 budget authority of $3.23 billion.<sup>11</sup>

Hearings on FY2002 Budget Requests. The House Subcommittee on Legislative, Committee on Appropriations, held hearings on April 25, 2002, on FY2003 requests of the House of Representatives, Library of Congress, including Congressional Research Service, Government Printing Office, and General Accounting Office. Hearings continued on April 25 on requests of the Architect of the Capitol and the Congressional Budget Office.

The Senate Subcommittee on Legislative Branch, Committee on Appropriations, held hearings on March 13 on FY2003 requests of the Library of Congress, including Congressional Research Service; on April 17 on requests of the Secretary of the Senate and Architect of the Senate; on May 1 on requests of the Senate Sergeant at Arms and Capitol Police; and on May 8 on budgets of the Government Printing Office, Congressional Budget Office, and General Accounting Office.

Action on Second FY2002 Legislative Branch Supplemental Appropriation (H.R. 4775; S. 2551; P.L. 107-206)

In July, both houses agreed to a FY2002 supplemental appropriations bill, H.R. 4775, signed into P.L. 107-206 by the President on August 2, 2002, containing $25.2 million for the legislative branch and administrative provisions as follows:

- $16.1 million for the Capitol Police to meet expenses of computer equipment and services, training, communications, uniforms, weapons, and reimbursement for expenses related to anthrax detection and treatment to the Hazardous Substance Superfund of the Environmental Protection Agency;

<sup>11</sup> FY2002 appropriations contain regular annual funds in the FY2002 Legislative Branch Appropriations Act, P.L. 107-68, and emergency response funds ($256.1 million) transferred pursuant to P.L. 107-117, the FY2002 Emergency Supplemental Appropriations for Recovery from and Response to Terrorist Attacks (in Division B, chapter 9).

- $1.6 million for the House of Representatives account “Salaries and expenses” in subaccount “Standing committees, special and select” to remain available through December 31, 2002; and
- $7.5 million for the Library of Congress account “Copyright Office, salaries and expenses” to meet a shortfall in copyright registration receipts due to delays in the receiving mail subsequent to the discovery of anthrax; the appropriation was contained in a request transmitted by the President to Congress on March 21, 2002; and

Among administrative provisions in the conference report are those to

- increase a Senator’s Official Personnel and Office Expense Account by up to $20,000 to meet expenses directly related to the September 11 terrorist attacks, or to displacement due to anthrax detection, subject to certification by the Senator in a written request to the Secretary of the Senate no later than September 30, 2002;
- authorize the Architect of the Capitol to acquire buildings and facilities for use as computer backup facilities for legislative branch offices, subject to approval of the House Office Building Commission or the Senate Committee on Rules and Administration, or both if a joint facility; such property is to be considered part of the Capitol grounds and subject to regulations governing use of the grounds;
- establish a new account in the Treasury for the Architect of the Capitol titled, “Capitol police buildings,” for maintenance, care, and operation of buildings of the Capitol Police; and
- authorize the Architect of the Capitol to acquire real property for use by the Capitol Police, subject to approval of the House Office Building Commission and the Senate Committee on Rules and Administration; such property is to be considered part of the Capitol grounds and subject to regulations governing use of the grounds.

House Version, H.R. 4775. The House passed H.R. 4775 (H.Rept. 107-480) on May 24, 2002, containing $25.2 million for the legislative branch in Chapter 9 as follows:

- $1.6 million for House committees;
- $7.5 million for the Copyright Office of the Library of Congress; and
- $16.1 million for the Capitol Police Board account in subaccount “General expenses” for computer equipment, training, communications, uniforms, weapons, and including $12.5 million for reimbursement to the Environmental Protection Agency, Hazardous Substance Superfund, for expenses of anthrax investigation and cleanup. However, availability of the $16.1 million appropriations was contingent upon the amount being included in an official budget request transmitted by the President to Congress. Further, the budget request must be designated by the President as an emergency requirement, as defined in the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985. Congress so designated the $16.1 million in H.R. 4775.

Among administrative provisions in H.R. 4775, as passed by the House, are those to

- establish a new account in the Treasury for the Architect of the Capitol titled, “Capitol police buildings,” for maintenance, care, and operation of buildings of the Capitol Police;
- authorize the Architect of the Capitol to acquire real property for use by the Capitol Police, subject to approval of the House Office Building Commission and the Senate Committee on Rules and Administration; such property is to be considered part of the Capitol grounds and subject to regulations governing use of the grounds;
- authorize federal, state, and local government political leaders to participate in an exchange program with Russia to study Russian politics, business and other operations;
- direct the Librarian of Congress and the Director of the Congressional Research Service (CRS) to ensure that all CRS materials, including materials provided through electronic means, be provided to Members and congressional employees as currently provided at all other locations where Members and employees carry out official duties; and
- authorize the Architect of the Capitol to acquire buildings and facilities for use as computer backup facilities for legislative branch offices, subject to approval of the House Office Building Commission or the Senate Committee on Rules and Administration, or both if a joint facility; such property is to be considered part of the Capitol grounds and subject to regulations governing use of the grounds.

Senate Version, S. 2551. On June 7, the Senate passed H.R. 4775, amended to contain the language of S. 2551. The Senate version contained $11.1 million for the legislative branch in Chapter 9 as follows:

- $3.6 million for the Capitol Police Board subaccount “General expenses” for security equipment and installation, supplies, materials and contract services, to be disbursed by the Board or their designee; and
- $7.5 million for the Library of Congress account “Copyright Office, salaries and expenses.”

Among general provisions in S. 2551, as passed, are those to

- increase a Senator's Official Personnel and Office Expense Account by up to $20,000 to meet expenses directly related to the September 11 terrorist attacks, or to displacement due to anthrax detection, subject to certification by the Senator in a written request to the Secretary of the Senate no later than September 30, 2002;
- grant the Capitol Police Board sole discretion in determining if employee bonuses will assist the Capitol Police in recruitment;
- authorize the Capitol Police to pay tuition allowances for payment or reimbursement of education expenses; and
- authorize the Architect of the Capitol to acquire buildings and facilities for use as computer backup facilities for legislative branch offices, subject to approval of the House Office Building Commission or the Senate Committee on Rules and Administration or both if a joint facility; such property is to be considered part of the Capitol grounds and subject to regulations governing use of the grounds.

Action on First Continuing Resolution (H.J. Res. 111; P.L. 107-229) with Provision Relating to the Government Printing Office

Congress inserted language in the first continuing resolution (H.J.Res. 111) prohibiting federal agencies from using funds made available in the Act (P.L. 107-229, September 30, 2002), or any other act, to pay for printing services provided by an entity other than the Government Printing Office (GPO). The language reflects a conflict between Congress and the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) over federal printing requirements. Current law requires that federal entities (other than the Supreme Court) procure printing through GPO. On May 3, 2002, the director of OMB issued a directive that federal agencies would no longer be required to use GPO for printing services.<sup>12</sup> According to the memorandum, the directive is based on a 1996 opinion of the Department of Justice that Congress could not constitutionally obligate executive agencies to use GPO for printing.

Action on Third Continuing Resolution (H.J.Res. 122; P.L. 107-240) With Provisions Relating to the Government Printing Office and Gratuity Payment

Congress again added language to the third continuing resolution (H.J.Res. 122; P.L. 107-240, October 11, 2002) regarding federal printing requirements that (1) states the finding of Congress that law requires "all printing, binding, and blankbook work for Congress, the Executive Office, the Judiciary, other than the Supreme Court of the United States, and every executive department, independent office, and establishment of the government to be done at the Government Printing Office;”<sup>13</sup> and (2) prohibits the use of funds in this Act (P.L. 107-240), or any other act, to implement the May 3, 2002, directive of the director of OMB, which authorizes federal agencies to use printing sources other than GPO; and (3) prohibits the use of funds to pay for the printing of the U.S. Budget by a printing entity other than GPO.

The issue however remains unsettled. On October 22, 2002, the Department of Justice issued a memorandum restating the department’s view that the requirement for federal agencies to procure printing only through GPO is unconstitutional. On November 14, 2002, the General Accounting Office (GAO) issued an opinion that federal agencies are prohibited from using funds to implement the May 3, 2002, directive of OMB, and that no funds are available in any act to pay for printing the U.S. Budget other than by GPO. Later in November, OMB formalized its position in the November 13 issue of the Federal Register, and issued solicitations for procurement of printing services for the FY2004 U.S. Budget.

The Act also contains a gratuity payment of $150,000 (equal to one year’s salary) for the widower of the late Hon. Patsy Mink (Hawaii).

Elements That Congress Considered During Discussions on the FY2003 Bill

NOTE: This section of the report does not reflect revised FY2003 Senate appropriation figures contained in H.J.Res. 2, the FY2003 omnibus appropriation resolution. This section will be updated to indicate those changes within the next few days. The revised FY2003 Senate figures are contained in Tables 3-7 of this report.

Discussions on the FY2003 bill have included the following:

- funding increase for the activities of the Capitol Police;
- security enhancements within and around the Capitol complex;
- recruitment and retention of Capitol Police personnel;
- salary disbursing authority for Capitol Police officers;
- Library of Congress Police merger with Capitol Police; and
- construction of a new Capitol Police command center.

Capitol Complex Security – U.S. Capitol Police<sup>14</sup>

Funding Issues. The U.S. Capitol Police is responsible for Capitol complex security, under the direction of the Capitol Police Board. The September 11, 2001 terrorist attacks and the subsequent discovery of anthrax in Capitol office buildings prompted enhanced security within and around the Capitol complex, and Congress has undertaken to strengthen the capabilities of the U.S. Capitol Police. Last year, Congress increased spending for the Capitol Police by $50.3 million, or 47.1%, over the FY2001 level for a total appropriations of $157.2 million for FY2002.<sup>15</sup> In addition, Congress authorized an additional 348 FTEs for a total of 1,750 FTEs for FY2002.

For FY2003, the Capitol Police requested $212.6 million, an increase of 35.3% over the FY2002 level, and an additional 60 FTEs. Of the $212.6 million, $184.5 million<sup>16</sup> was requested for Capitol Police salaries, an increase of 63.3% over the FY2002 level of $113.0 million. The increase largely is intended for additional officers and civilian personnel and a pay raise for sworn officers. In addition, during FY2003, the Capitol Police anticipate the need to replace approximately 100 officers who normally leave the force each year through attrition.<sup>17</sup> According to the Capitol Police, the increased FTE level would allow for

- two officers at each post - one to operate and monitor security equipment and one to act as an observer;
- staff of the new Office of Emergency Management;
- staff of a chemical/biological strike team;
- additional sworn and civilian personnel for uniformed services, intelligence, and dignitary protection; and
- administrative support for increased Capitol Police personnel.<sup>18</sup>

The U.S. Capitol Police requested $28.1 million for general expenses, a reduction of 36.4% from the FY2002 level of $44.2 million. The FY2002 appropriations includes a transfer of $31 million from the emergency response fund (P.L. 107-38) for immediate security enhancements undertaken by the Capitol Police in the aftermath of the September 11, 2001 terrorist attacks. Without the $31 million supplemental, the FY2003 request for general expenses would be an increase of 113.8% over the base level of $13.2 million. The increase is largely intended for

<sup>16</sup> This figure does not contain the $7.8 million included in the President's budget request to cover the fully accrued costs related to retirement benefits of Civil Service Retirement System employees and retiree health benefits of all U.S. Capitol Police.

- additional training programs for police and civilian personnel;
- implementation of a response strike force for a chemical, biological, or radiological incident;
- increases in protective service travel;
- a new mobile command center;
- expansion of the information technology infrastructure;
- staff recruitment, including incentives and promotional testing;
- additional requirements for weapons, ammunition, and range facilities; and
- additional cell phones, workstations and other communications equipment.<sup>19</sup>

New Account Structure for the Capitol Police in the FY2003 Bills.

Both houses moved the Capitol Police account for (1) salaries and (2) general expenses from the Joint Items account to a stand-alone Capitol Police account in Title I of the bill.

Additionally, both houses authorized a new account for Capitol Police buildings and grounds for the Architect of the Capitol within the U.S. Treasury. H.R. 5121 shows this appropriation (for “Capitol Police buildings and grounds”) under the Capitol Police account, while S. 2720 shows this appropriation (for “Capitol Police buildings”) under the Architect of the Capitol account.

House and Senate FY2003 Appropriations for the Police. Both bills contain three appropriations for activities of the Capitol Police: (1) salaries, (2) general expenses, and (3) Capitol Police buildings and grounds. The total appropriation for all three appropriations in the House bill is $256.2 million, an increase of $99.0 million (63.0%) over the FY2002 appropriations of $157.2 million. The Senate total is $209.8 million, an increase of $52.6 million (33.5%). The major differences are funding levels for (1) general expenses ($43.0 million in the House bill; $33.6 million in the Senate version) and (2) Capitol Police buildings and grounds ($37.5 million in the House bill; $1.5 million in the Senate version).

H.R. 5121 contains $175.7 million, an increase of 55.5%, for the salaries of 1,454 sworn officers and 326 civilians. This reflects an increase of 288 sworn officers and 30 civilians over current levels.

The Senate-adopted bill (H.R. 5121, amended to contain the language of S. 2720) contains $176.6 million, an increase of 56.3%, for the salaries of a total of 1,839 FTEs. This is an increase of 269 FTEs over the FY2002 level. Both appropriations measures accommodate a 9.1% pay raise for U.S. Capitol Police officers, which includes a cost-of-living-adjustment of 4.1% and a comparability pay adjustment of 5.0%.

For general expenses of the Capitol Police, the House approved $43 million for FY2003, which represents an increase of 225.8% over the FY2002 base level of $13.2 million.<sup>20</sup> In contrast, the Senate approved $33.2 million for general expenses. This figure represents an increase of 151.5% from the FY2002 base level. The committee report accompanying the Senate bill states: “The amount recommended is needed primarily to support the significant increase in staffing as well as an increase in training.”<sup>21</sup>

For Capitol Police buildings and grounds, the House approved $37.5 million, and the Senate approved $1.5 million.

Policy Issues. According to the U.S. Capitol Police, the recruitment and retention of qualified personnel to meet the additional demands has been a tremendous challenge. During a hearing before the Senate Appropriations Subcommittee on Legislative Branch on May 1, 2002, Acting Chief Robert R. Howe testified that the Capitol Police “are losing officers to other law enforcement agencies at an increasing rate. Likewise, we are competing against those same agencies to attract qualified personnel to increase the staffing level and overcome attrition.”

Recognizing these challenges, Congress last year authorized the Capitol Police to institute a number of recruitment and retention incentives. Section 909 of the Emergency Supplemental Act, 2002 (Division B of P.L. 107-117, 115 Stat. 2320-2322) authorizes the Capitol Police Board and the Capitol Police Chief to provide several types of financial incentives for the recruitment and retention of officers and employees of the Capitol Police.

The House and Senate versions of the FY2003 legislative branch appropriations bill, H.R. 5121, contain several administrative provisions related to such incentives.<sup>22</sup> First, both bills include similar provisions that would give the Capitol Police chief the sole discretion in determining recruitment and retention bonuses and add a tuition reimbursement program to the types of incentives the chief could offer.

<sup>22</sup> The Senate Appropriations Committee-reported legislative branch appropriations bill (S. 2720) included provisions that would authorize the Capitol Police chief to pay additional compensation for specialty positions and compensate newly-appointed officers at a rate above the minimum base rate. A manager’s amendment (S.Amdt. 4320), adopted by unanimous consent on July 25, added provisions to give the Capitol Police chief the sole discretion in determining recruitment and retention bonuses; the authority to offer tuition allowances for education expenses; and the authority to provide availability pay to officers. This manager’s amendment also added a provision to require the chief to recruit personnel for the Capitol Police without regard to age.

Second, both bills contain similar provisions that would provide the chief with other tools that are intended to augment personnel recruitment and retention. Some of these include the authority to establish specialty positions and pay, provide availability pay to officers, and compensate newly-appointed officers at a rate above the minimum base rate. The House bill also would authorize the chief to establish a program to recruit former military and law enforcement personnel without regard to age and provide overtime compensation to officers at ranks above lieutenant. The Senate bill would require the chief to recruit personnel for the Capitol Police without regard to age.

The House Appropriations Committee-reported measure contained a provision (Section 110 of H.R. 5121) transferring the disbursing authority for salaries of the Capitol Police to the chief. Currently, salaries of Capitol Police officers assigned to the House are disbursed by the House Chief Administrative Officer, and salaries of officers assigned to the Senate are disbursed by the Secretary of the Senate. The Committee-reported provision would have consolidated these payrolls. However, during consideration of the bill on the House floor on July 18, 2002, Representative Robert Ney raised a point of order against the provision on the grounds that it violated clause 2 of House Rule XXI by changing existing law.<sup>23</sup> After the chair sustained the point of order, the provision was stricken from the bill.<sup>24</sup>

Identical language consolidating the Capitol Police payrolls was added to the Senate version of the legislative branch appropriations bill by a manager's amendment (S.Amdt. 4320), approved by unanimous consent on July 25, 2002.

Finally, the Senate bill contains an administrative provision (Section 108 of S. 2720) to transfer the personnel and functions of the Library of Congress Police to the U.S. Capitol Police. Last year, the Senate Appropriations Committee requested the General Accounting Office (GAO) to conduct an evaluation on the feasibility of consolidating the Library of Congress Police and/or the Government Printing Office Police with the Capitol Police.<sup>25</sup> On July 5, 2002, the GAO issued its completed evaluation, U.S. Capitol Police Merger Review (GAO-02-792R), finding that a merger of the police forces would be feasible.

Capitol Complex Security – Status of Funds for the Capitol Visitors' Center

Although the FY2003 request does not contain funds for the Capitol visitors' center, the center will play an important role in Capitol security. Conferees on the FY2002 legislative branch appropriations bill agreed to add $70 million for the Capitol visitors' center, reflecting a heightened interest by some Members of Congress in making the necessary appropriations available so that construction on the center could begin in early calendar year 2002. During mark up of the FY2002 bill by the Senate Appropriations Committee, committee members agreed to an amendment containing $1 million for the “planning, engineering, design, and construction” of the center the purpose of which is “to provide greater security for all persons working in or visiting the United States Capitol and to enhance the educational experience of those who have come to learn about the Capitol building and Congress.” The funds were to remain available until expended. The mark up of the House Subcommittee on Legislative did not contain funds for the center.

Subsequent to congressional approval of $70 million for the center in November 2001, the President released additional funds for construction of the center in the FY2001 emergency terrorism funds contained (P.L. 107-38.) The construction funds were contained in $211.1 million released to the Architect of the Capitol. The amount of funds available for construction was not provided in the release.<sup>26</sup>

Congressional leadership broke ground for the center on June 20, 2000. Construction began in early 2002 and is expected to be completed in 2005.<sup>27</sup> Cost is estimated to be approximately $335 million.

Architect of the Capitol Operations

Architect of the Capitol Funding. Operations of the Architect of the Capitol are funded in Titles I and II of the legislative branch appropriations bill.

Title I contains funds for general administration, salaries and expenses; Capitol buildings; Capitol grounds; Senate office buildings; House office buildings; Capitol power plant; and in the Senate FY2003 bill a new account, Capitol Police Buildings.<sup>28</sup>

Title II contains funds for structural and mechanical care of buildings and grounds of the Library of Congress (LOC). From time to time, other projects of the Architect are funded in Title II, as was the case in FY2002, which included $70.0 million for the Capitol Visitors’ Center and $1.3 million for the Congressional Cemetery.

Appropriations in Titles I and II Combined. H.R. 5121 contains a total appropriation for the Architect of $303.1 million (excluding funds for Senate office buildings), a decrease of $117.5 million (-27.9%) over the FY2002 appropriation of $420.6 million.<sup>29</sup>

S. 2720 contains $388.0 million (excluding funds for House office buildings), a decrease of $32.6 million (-7.8%) from the FY2002 appropriation of $420.6 million.<sup>30</sup>

The FY2003 request for activities in Titles I and II is $390.3 million, a decrease of $30.3 million (-7.2%) from FY2002. The FY2003 request did not include $12.6 million requested by President Bush to transfer full costs of retirement and health benefits to the agency.

Appropriations in Title I. H.R. 5121 contains $267.8 million (excluding funds for Senate office buildings), a decrease of $59.9 million (-18.3%) from the FY2002 appropriation of $327.6 million.<sup>31</sup>

S. 2720 contains $349.9 million (excluding funds for House office buildings), an increase of $22.3 million (6.8%) over FY2002. The Senate bill contains more funds than the House for salaries and expenses and the Capitol Power Plant.

Funds requested for Title I are $363.4 million, an increase of $35.8 million (10.9%) over FY2002.

Appropriations in Title II. H.R. 5121 contains $35.3 million, and S. 2720 contains $38.1 million, both reflecting decreases from the FY2002 appropriation of $93.0 million, due to one-time FY2002 funding for the Capitol Visitors' Center and the Congressional Cemetery. The House bill reflects a 62.4% increase, and the Senate bill an increase of 75.3%.

Among the Architect's requests were funds for 43 currently unfunded FTEs ($3.2 million), and a total FTE level of 1,958; and 115 projects that were contained in the Architect's "capital budget," which primarily funds maintenance projects. Seven projects account for $67 million, or 65%, of the request. These include funds for repair of the Capitol dome ($42.5 million); purchase of property for an off-site delivery and screening center for the Capitol police ($6.8 million); constructing a new Library of Congress audio visual conservation center in Culpepper Virginia ($5 million); renovations to the Rayburn office building cafeteria ($3.5 million); designing and purchasing land for a vehicle maintenance facility for the Capitol police ($3.3 million); modernizing House building elevators ($3 million); and preparing construction drawings for a garage adjacent to Capitol police headquarters ($3 million).

Botanic Garden. H.R. 5121 contains $5.9 million, and S. 2720 contains $6.1 million, increases of 5.1% and 7.7%, respectively.

House and Senate Committee Funding

House Committee Funding. H.R. 5121 contains $132.9 million for committee operations, the same amount requested for FY2003. The funding level is an increase of $5.4 million (4.3%) over the FY2002 appropriation of $127.5 million.

Funding for House committees is contained in the appropriation heading “committee employees” that comprises two subheadings. The first subheading contains funds for personnel and non-personnel expenses of House committees, except the Appropriations Committee, as authorized by the House in a committee expense resolution. H.R. 5121 contains $108.7 million, the same as the budget request, an increase of $4.2 million (4.0%) over the FY2002 appropriation of $104.5 million.

The second subheading contains funds for the personnel and non-personnel expenses of the Committee on Appropriations. The FY2003 recommended level is the same as requested, $24.2 million, an increase of $1.2 million (5.2%) over the FY2002 appropriation of $23.0 million.

Senate Committee Funding. S. 2720 contains $120.7 million for committee operations, an increase of $2.6 million (2.2%) over the FY2002 appropriation of $118.1 million. The amount requested for FY2003 was $120.7 million.

Appropriations for Senate committees are contained in two Senate accounts. The first account is the Senate “Committee on Appropriations,” which is funded at $11.3 million, the same as requested. This reflects an increase of $441,000 (4.1%) over the FY2002 funding level of $10.8 million.

The second account is “Inquiries and Investigations,” which contains funds for all other Senate committees, with a recommended funding level of $109.5 million, an increase of $2.2 million (2.0%) over the FY2002 appropriation of $107.3 million.

Support Agency Funding

Congressional Budget Office. Both H.R. 5121 and S. 2720 contain $32.4 million, the same as requested. This amount is an increase of $1.6 million, or 5.2%, over the FY2002 funding level of $30.8 million.

Language in the House bill authorizes CBO employees to work for other government agencies on detail and other temporary assignments for purposes of study that will benefit future work at the agency. The agency requested changes in its legislative authority in order to offer advanced staff training through study and work experiences in both government and private sectors, in subject areas in which the agency has difficulty in recruiting.

The agency's request contained authorization for four additional FTE positions, which, if approved, would increase the FTE level to 236. These additional positions would permit CBO to expand its visiting scholars' program.<sup>32</sup>

According to the director of CBO in recent testimony, the agency's budget "continues to be driven by the need to be competitive in a specialists labor market, with nearly all of the increase going to mandatory increases in personnel costs."

Neither bill contains $1.4 million requested by President Bush to transfer full costs of retirement and health benefits to the agency.

General Accounting Office. H.R. 5121 contains $453.5 million, a 5.6% or $24.1 million increase over the FY2002 appropriation of $429.4 million. The Senate bill contains $454.5 million, a 5.8% or $25.1 million increase.

For FY2003, the General Accounting Office (GAO) requested $454.8 million, an increase of $25.4 million (5.9%) over FY2002. Funding for FY2002 is $429.4 million, which includes $7.6 million in FY2002 emergency response funds transferred pursuant to P.L. 107-117, the FY2002 Emergency Supplemental Appropriations for Recovery from and Response to Terrorist Attacks (in Division B, chapter 9).

FY2003's request does not include $21.3 million requested by President Bush to transfer full costs of retirement and health benefits to the agency.

The agency's request would allow it to maintain its authorized FTE level of 3,269. According to GAO, 80% of its FY2003 budget request is for pay and related benefits, with emphasis on staff training, recruiting, and retention, including mass transit subsidies and a new student loan repayment program.<sup>33</sup>

Library of Congress. The budget of the Library of Congress (LOC) is included in both Title I and Title II of the legislative branch appropriations bill. Title I contains funds for the Congressional Research Service (CRS); Title II contains funds for all other activities of the LOC.

H.R. 5121 contains $508.5 million for LOC activities in both titles, an increase of $26.8 million (5.6%) over the FY2002 appropriation of $481.7 million.<sup>34</sup> S. 2720 contains $496.9 million, an increase of $15.3 million (3.2%) over FY2002. The agency's FY2003 request was $511.7 million, an increase of $29.9 million (6.2%) over FY2002.

The FY2003 request does not include $24.6 million requested by President Bush to transfer full costs of retirement and health benefits to the agency, $4.8 million for CRS and $19.7 million for the Library, excluding CRS.

Library of Congress, Except CRS (in Title II). H.R. 5121 contains $422.2 million, an increase of $22.0 million (5.5%) over the FY2002 appropriation of $400.2 million. S. 2720 contains $410.0 million, an increase of $9.8 million (2.4%).<sup>35</sup> Additional funds are available to the Library through congressional authorization to use receipts collected by the Copyright Office, including $27.9 million in FY2002 and $29.7 million in FY2003.

The FY2003 Library of Congress request was $423.9 million, an increase of $23.7 million (5.9%) over the FY2002 level of $400.2 million. Included among major elements of the Library's request are mandatory increases in pay and related expenses and price-level increases ($21.6 million); an increase for the Library's digital futures initiatives ($16.5 million); an increase in collections access, preservation, and security ($8.7 million); and an increase in infrastructure support ($5.3 million). The Library requested 169 additional FTE positions, as follows: 35 for digital futures, 118 for collections access, preservation and security, 4 for infrastructure support, and 12 for CRS. The new authorized FTE level would be 4,358.<sup>36</sup>

<sup>34</sup> The FY2002 funding level contains $29.6 million in FY2002 emergency response funds transferred pursuant to P.L. 107-117, the FY2002 Emergency Supplemental Appropriations for Recovery from and Response to Terrorist Attacks (in Division B, chapter 9).

<sup>35</sup> The FY2002 appropriation contains $29.6 million in FY2002 emergency response funds transferred pursuant to P.L. 107-117, the FY2002 Emergency Supplemental Appropriations for Recovery from and Response to Terrorist Attacks (in Division B, chapter 9).

The Librarian of Congress also requested an additional $7.5 million in FY2002 funds for the Copyright Office to meet the shortfall in copyright registration receipts due to delays in the receiving mail. These funds are contained in the FY2002 supplemental (H.R. 4775) recently approved by conferees.

Congressional Research Service (in Title I). The House approved $86.2 million for the Congressional Research Service (CRS), an increase of $4.8 million (5.9%) over the FY2002 appropriation of $81.5 million. The Senate bill contains $87.0 million, an increase of $5.5 million (6.8%). Both figures are lower than the agency's FY2003 request of $87.7 million. Most of the additional funds would meet increases in salaries (and related personnel costs) and in the costs of goods and services due to inflation.

Government Printing Office. The House approved $119.8 million for the Government Printing Office (GPO) for FY2003, an increase of $5.2 million (4.5%) from the FY2002 funding level of $114.6 million.<sup>37</sup> The Senate bill contains $122.5 million, an increase of $7.8 million (6.8%) from the FY2002 level. The agency's FY2003 request in both titles is $122.5 million, an increase of $7.8 million (6.8%) over FY2002.

Neither the House nor Senate includes $6.9 million requested by President Bush to transfer full costs of retirement and health benefits to the agency as follows: $5.1 million for congressional printing and binding in Title I and $1.8 million for the Office of Superintendent of Documents in Title II.

GPO is funded in Title I for congressional printing and binding, and in Title II for the Office of Superintendent of Documents. Title II also contains funding from time to time for the GPO revolving fund.

For Title I, congressional printing and binding, both the House and Senate bills contain the amount requested, $90.1 million, an increase of $9.1 million (11.3%) over the FY2002 budget of $81.0 million. For Title II, Office of Superintendent of Documents, the House approved $29.7 million, a decrease of $4.0 million (11.8%) from FY2002's budget of $33.6 million. The Senate approved $32.3 million, a decrease of $1.3 million (4%) from FY2002.

<sup>37</sup> The FY2002 funding level of $114.6 million contains $4.0 million in FY2002 emergency response funds transferred pursuant to P.L. 107-117, the FY2002 Emergency Supplemental Appropriations for Recovery from and Response to Terrorist Attacks (in Division B, chapter 9).

- b. FY2002 funds are those in the FY2002 Legislative Branch Appropriations Act (P.L. 107-68; 115 Stat. 560; Nov. 15, 2001), and transfers to the Legislative Branch Emergency Response Fund, pursuant to P.L.107-117).
- c. This appropriation heading was new in the FY1996 bill. The heading represents a consolidation of (1) the former heading Members' clerk hire; (2) the former heading official mail costs; and (3) the former subheading official expenses of Members, under the heading allowances and expenses.
- d. This appropriation heading was new in the FY1996 bill. The heading represents a consolidation of (1) the former heading committee employees; (2) the former heading standing committees, special and select; (3) the former heading Committee on Budget (studies); and (4) the former heading Committee on Appropriations (studies and investigations).

Sources: Budget authorities for FY1995-FY2001 are from the House Appropriations Committee. FY1995 budget authorities reflect rescissions and a supplemental contained in P.L. 104-19, 109 Stat. 219-221, July 27, 1995, FY1995 Supplemental and Rescissions Act (H.R. 1944). FY1996 budget authorities reflect rescissions contained in P.L. 104-208, 110 Stat. 3009-510-511, Sept. 30, 1996, FY1997 Omnibus Consolidated Appropriations Act (H.R. 3610). FY1998 budget authorities represent supplementals contained in P.L. 105-174, May 1, 1998, and an $11 million transfer to the Government Printing Office (GPO) from the GPO revolving fund. FY1999 budget authorities contain emergency supplemental appropriations in P.L. 105-277, and supplemental appropriations in P.L. 106-31. FY2000 budget authorities contain a supplemental and a 0.38% rescission in P.L. 106-113. Totals reflect rounding. FY1999 budget authority contains $223.7 million in emergency supplemental appropriations (P.L. 105-277), and $3.8 million for expenses of a House page dormitory and $1.8 million for expenses of life safety renovations to the O'Neill House Office Building (P.L. 106-31). The FY1999 appropriation also contains a rescission of $3.5 million, and a supplemental for the same amount in P.L. 106-31.

The legislative branch appropriations acts do not contain permanent federal funds or permanent trust funds. Permanent federal funds were: FY1995, $343,000; FY1996, $302,000; FY1997, $325,000; FY1998, $333,000; FY1999, $358,000; and FY2000, $279,000. Permanent trust funds were: FY1995, $16,000; FY1996, $31,000; FY1997, $29,000; FY1998, $29,999; FY1999, $47,000; and FY2000, $51,000. Sources are the U.S. Budget and the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations.

The formula for conversion to constant dollars is as follows: 2001 Consumer Price Index (CPI) number divided by each year's CPI number multiplied by that year's budget authority. Source for 1995-2000 index figures is the Bureau of Labor Statistics. Source for 2001 estimate is the Congressional Budget Office.

Notes:

- Prior to FY1978, the legislative branch appropriations act contained numerous titles. Effective in FY1978, Congress restructured the legislative bill so that it would "more adequately reflect actual costs of operating the U.S. Congress than has been true in the past years" (H.Rept. 95-450, FY1978 Legislative Appropriations). As a result, the act was divided into two titles. Title I, Congressional Operations, was established to contain appropriations for the actual operation of Congress. Title II, Related Agencies, was established to contain the budgets for activities not considered as providing direct support to Congress. Periodically, the act has contained additional titles for such purposes as capital improvements and special one-time functions.
- FY1996 figures contain rescissions in the Omnibus Consolidated Appropriations Act, FY1997 (P.L. 104-208, Sept. 28, 1996). Provisions applicable to legislative branch budget authority in P.L. 104-208 appear in Congressional Record, daily edition, vol. 142, Sept. 28, 1996, pp. H11778-H11779.
- Includes budget authority contained in the FY1999 regular annual Legislative Branch Appropriations Act (P.L. 105-275), $223.7 million in FY1999 emergency supplemental appropriations in P.L. 105-277, and $5.6 million in FY1999 supplemental appropriations in P.L. 106-31.
- Includes $5.5 million in emergency supplementals under the sergeant at arms for completion of Year-2000 computer conversion (P.L. 105-277).
- Includes $6.373 million in emergency supplementals under the chief administrative officer for completion of Year-2000 computer conversion (P.L. 105-277), and includes a rescission of $3.5 million from the House heading "salaries, officers, and employees" and a supplemental appropriation of $3.5 million for the chief administrative officer for replacement of the House payroll system (P.L. 106-31).

- f. Includes $106,782,000 for emergency security enhancements funded under the Capitol Police Board's general expenses account (P.L. 105-277). The total Joint Items figure also includes $2 million for the Trade Deficit Review Commission.
- g. This figure includes $100 million for design and construction of a Capitol visitors' center, funded under the Architect of the Capitol's Capitol buildings account, in "salaries and expenses" (P.L. 105-277), and includes $3.8 million for expenses of a House page dormitory and $1.8 million for expenses for life safety renovations to the O'Neill House Office Building (P.L. 106-31).
- h. Includes $1 million for the Congressional Cemetery.
- i. Includes $5 million in emergency supplemental appropriations under the salaries and expenses account of the General Accounting Office for completion of the Year-2000 computer conversion (P.L. 105-277).
- j. Includes regular annual appropriations (P.L. 106-57) and a 0.38% rescission and supplemental in P.L. 106-113.
- k. This column contains: (1) FY2001 regular annual appropriations contained in H.R. 5657, legislative branch appropriations bill; FY2001 supplemental appropriations of $118 million and a 0.22% across-the-board rescission contained in H.R. 5666, miscellaneous appropriations bill; and (3) FY2001 supplemental appropriations of $79.5 million contained in H.R. 2216 (P.L. 107-20). H.R. 5657 and H.R. 5666 were incorporated by reference in P.L. 106-554, FY2001 Consolidated Appropriations Act. The first FY2001 legislative branch appropriations bill, H.R. 4516, was vetoed Oct. 30, 2000.
